Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on 9/14/07 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of U.S. Patent No. 6,801,008 B1 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 13-18 and 20-25 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 13-18 and 20-25 are allowed since certain key features of the claimed invention are not taught or fairly suggested by prior art. In claim 13, "reducing the output of the maximum peak force to an output of a nominal peak force from the actuator when the power utilized by the actuator exceeds an average power level over a predetermined period of time, the nominal peak force associated with a maximum power that the actuator can utilize in continuous steady-state operation". In claim 20, "determining a stored force feedback effect to contribute to a force output by an actuator on the manipulandum, the stored force feedback effect comprising a force feedback effect type and a magnitude; receiving a second signal comprising a calculated force feedback effect; and determining a combined force feedback effect to contribute to a force output by an actuator on the manipulandum, the combined force feedback effect comprising the stored force feedback effect and the calculated force feedback effect". load cell and of the position transducers for the manipulator drive servos are used to generate command signals for the drive servos which urge motion of the clamp to reduce the externally imposed forces; however, singularly or in combination with other prior art, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
